In 2020, Minnesota ranked 15th in the nation, sending 170 Peace Corps Volunteers overseas. On a per capita basis, Minnesota ranked 10th in the nation. Among major metropolitan areas, the Minneapolis–Saint Paul–Bloomington region ranked 4th in the nation for sending volunteers abroad.

Among large colleges and universities, the University of Minnesota ranked 7th in 2019/2020 in sending Peace Corps Volunteers overseas. Among small colleges and universities, Macalester College was tied for 7th and Carleton College was tied for 16th in sending volunteers overseas.

Peace Corps has educational partnerships with St. Catherine University and the University of Minnesota.

National Peace Corps Association affiliate groups include the Minnesota Returned Peace Corps Volunteers (MNRPCV)

MNRPCV member Paul Thompson will soon ski his 40th Birkiebiner cross country ski race and is raising $40,000 to promote a green planet. He is a member of the NPCA affiliate group RPCV4EA (RPCVs for Environmental Action).

*Based on data from Peace Corps, National Peace Corps Association, and other news sources.