Hot Opportunity: International Programs Fellow

The International Programs Fellow will backstop the development, implementation and evaluation of NPCA’s programs and initiatives that provide international service learning, skills-based volunteering and short-term technical assistance opportunities to our Peace Corps community members. The Fellow will be responsible for coordinating the day-to-day activities of existing and emerging programs that deploy students, corporate volunteers, dignitaries, RPCVs and others on international assignments around the world.

Qualifications:

- Bachelor’s degree in relevant field with a minimum of 2 years of experience.
- Experience working with cross cultural teams and/or skills-based volunteer programs.
- Experience in program management, event management or logistics planning.
- Foreign language proficiency is highly desirable
- Returned Peace Corps Volunteer or overseas experience required.

National Peace Corps Association (NPCA) offers Returned Peace Corps Volunteers (RPCVs) the opportunity to put their passion, talent and ideas to action through short-term fellowships in our Washington, D.C. office. Remote engagement may be possible for RPCVs residing outside the D.C. area. As an NPCA fellow, you will be helping design, produce and drive key programmatic initiatives that benefit the broader Peace Corps community.

NPCA fellows are RPCVs who are in transition and available to commit to at least three months of full-time (minimum 24 hours per week) engagement with the NPCA. Positions are unpaid, although a modest subsidy for transportation and incidental expenses may be provided. You will have direct access to a vast network of professionals and partner organizations while gaining valuable professional leadership experience.

APPLICATION PROCESS

Please submit a cover letter and resume to fellowships@peacecorpsconnect.org with the desired fellowship in the subject title. In your cover letter, please note your availability and the position for which you are applying. Short writing samples are accepted. No phone calls please.

NOTE: The NPCA is not the U.S. Peace Corps, which is a separate, U.S. government agency and strategic partner of the NPCA. We are a proud employer of national service alumni.
