

National Peace Corps Association (NPCA) is a mission-driven social impact organization that serves the entire Peace Corps community, encouraging and celebrating their lifelong commitment to Peace Corps ideals. NPCA exists to fulfill three goals:

Help Peace Corps be the best it can be

NPCA advocates for and contributes to the continued improvement and expansion of the Peace Corps.

INCREASE PEACE CORPS FUNDING

By seeking program-sufficient and sustainable levels in Peace Corps federal appropriations through citizen advocacy.

STRENGTHEN POLICY, PROGRAMS, AND ENTITLEMENTS RELATED TO PEACE CORPS

By advocating for legislation and policies that help improve current and returned Volunteers' experiences and ensure equity with other branches of national service.

HEIGHTEN PEACE CORPS VISIBILITY AND RELEVANCY

By promoting the Peace Corps brand, values, and achievements within our community and to the general public.

Empower members and affiliate groups to thrive

NPCA connects, engages, and builds the capacity of members and groups to live by their Peace Corps ideals.

INCREASE ENGAGEMENT OF INDIVIDUAL COMMUNITY MEMBERS

By supporting community members' common affinity, Third Goal efforts, and lifelong commitment to Peace Corps ideals.

INCREASE ACCESS TO CAPACITY-BUILDING RESOURCES AND OPPORTUNITIES

By helping returned Volunteers overcome challenges and take the next step toward healthy lives and successful careers

INCREASE CAPACITY OF NPCA AFFILIATE GROUPS

By investing in affiliate groups as drivers of the Peace Corps community's collective grassroots action by providing core support and services.

Amplify the community's global social impact

NPCA builds the capabilities, capital, and community that members need to increase their global social impact.

INCREASE ENGAGEMENT IN SOCIAL IMPACT INITIATIVES

By serving as a hub for resource exchange and member engagement in social impact work important to the Peace Corps community.

INCREASE FUNDING FOR COMMUNITY SOCIAL IMPACT INITIATIVES

By building partnerships that further the common interests and causes important to the Peace Corps community.

INCREASE PEACE CORPS COMMUNITY CAPACITY FOR SOCIAL IMPACT INITIATIVES

By providing access to resources and opportunities that enhance members' and groups' ability to launch, manage, and assess volunteer and social impact initiatives.
