Lost primary

Campaign website: archived

Keith B. Goodenough served in the Wyoming House from 1989 to 1992 and in the Senate from 1995 to 2004. He filed to run in the Republican Party for the lone U.S. House seat on the last day.

Since his time in the legislature, Goodenough has run for several local offices as well as the U.S. Senate seat. He sat on the Casper City Council for one term.

His most recent prior campaign was for state superintendent to fill the vacancy left by Jillian Balow in 2022. Balow has also filed to run for the U.S. House seat this year.
